Yes he's the owner. He told Roger he stopped in and spoke with somebody and more or less painted the picture that the NE region is making a big deal of nothing.

Hi Tracey - Who is Mr. Rinaldi? Is he the owner of Hazelton Creek Properties? IF Mr. Rinaldi stopped into our office who did he speak to because it was not me!

Harry, Paul or Judy - Did any of you speak to a Mr. Rinaldi about the Hazelton Creek Properties PCB Matter?

Hi,

Sorry, I was out sampling...

I'm also sorry we don't have better info yet. They have not been exactly forthcoming. I did hear the Mr. Rinaldi stopped in your office to discuss it though. We've given them a portion of a drawing from their permit application that had a grid on it so we can actually locate the soil. Deliberative Process / Ex. 5

Deliberative Process / Ex. 5 Roger said he is going to call Mr. Rinaldi tomorrow to discuss. I'll call or email you tomorrow.

Hi Tracey - Have you been able to determine how much fill the PCB contaminated soil is under?

We did receive the records this afternoon. They did not provide a depth, and as you can see, they provided a highly detailed map. (sarcasm) I am confused why there are 11 circles, I would assume to represent piles, as that volume wouldn't even be one full truck load. My guess is that they made it up thinking that they may need to remove it.
I will pull their fill plan tomorrow and see if I can estimate how deep it will be.
